Since the company began in 1985 as a small shop, its primary objective has been to progress the trailer industry through design innovations - improving the product and value that consumers deserve.

For over 28 years, Diamond C has maintained its standard of quality, while keeping our roots deep in traditional values and progressing with tomorrow's technology. Still family owned and operated, Diamond C designs, manufactures, and markets more than 45 diverse models of open flat-bed trailers.

We maintain our position as an industry leader, and promise only the best quality, value, and customer service. We challenge you, see the difference.
